

Moonachie Police Department

Police Blotter September 2010

All individuals named in this police blotter are presumed innocent until proven guilty.

INCIDENT / CHARGE: WARRANT ARREST

DATE: September 2nd, 2010

TIME: 5:14pm

Olatoyosi Olawale of South Orange, NJ was stopped on Moonachie Avenue, by Officer Ricardo. A check of the registered owner showed an active warrant from the Clifton Municipal Court. Olawale was issued motor vehicle summonses by Officer Ricardo. Olawale was then turned over to police officers from Clifton, N.J.

INCIDENT / CHARGE: DRIVING WHILE INTOXICATED ARREST

DATE: September 5th, 2010

TIME: 5:49 am

Ezequiel Hernandez of Union City, NJ was pulled over on Moonachie Road by Officer Napolitano. Mr. Hernandez appeared to be under the influence of alcohol. Hernandez was arrested for DWI. Hernandez was processed at police headquarters and issued five motor vehicle summonses. Hernandez was released to a relative.

INCIDENT / CHARGE: ARREST - THEFT BY DECEPTION, FORGERY

DATE: September 22nd, 2010

TIME: 5:23 pm

Detective McNeice charged Jackie Heller of Englewood Cliffs, NJ with forgery and theft by deception. Mr. Heller was the bookkeeper for Exclusive Marble and Granite a company located at 141 Moonachie Road in Moonachie. Mr. Heller is accused of forging company checks and then keeping the money. Detective McNeice processed Heller at police headquarters and signed the complaints. Judge Boggia placed bail at $25,000.00

CONTINUED

Moonachie Police Department

Police Blotter September 2010

All individuals named in this police blotter are presumed innocent until proven guilty.

INCIDENT / CHARGE: FALSE INFORMATION TO POLICE OFFICER , HINDERING APPREHENSION

DATE: September 21st, 2010

TIME: 7:40 pm

Matthew Igzi was charged with a criminal offense of Hindering Apprehension by giving false information to a law enforcement officer. Mr. Igzi was stopped for a motor vehicle violation by Officer Napolitano, Igzi gave the name of Michael Igzi when stopped, and Michael is his brother. Matthew had a suspended driver's license and did not have a license in possession at the time of the stop. Officer Napolitano was contacted by Michael Igzi and informed of what Matthew did. A check of Motor Vehicle Photographs confirmed the deception and Matthew was charged accordingly.

INCIDENT / CHARGE: DOMESTIC VIOLENCE ASSAULT

DATE: September 23rd, 2010

TIME: 6:40 pm

Officers Ricardo and Lemongello responded to a fight in the Vanguard Mobile Home Park. Amber Hepler and Brian Lamb both of Moonachie, NJ admitted to assaulting each other during an argument. Officers charged both individuals with assault and filed the required Domestic Violence paperwork.

INCIDENT / CHARGE: DISORDERLY CONDUCT, RESISTING ARREST

DATE: September 27th, 2010

TIME: 12:08 am

James Harris of Moonachie, NJ was arrested by Officer Inserra for resisting arrest and Disorderly Conduct. Officer Inserra, officer Napolitano and Sergeant Millar responded to a traffic accident on Mobile way in the Metropolitan trailer Home Park. During their investigation of the accident Mr. Harris started interfering in the investigation, he became argumentative and was then arrested, while being handcuffed Harris started wrestling with Officer Inserra. Harris was charged and processed, and at this time other charges are pending against Harris.